ANOTHER OPTION?
Send Dad to Singapore to experience the world's first nighttime Formula One Grand Prix. Organized by Remote Lands, the trip includes five nights accommodation at a historic hotel, a visit to the race pits to meet with the drivers and to see their F1 cars and three different nights of watching the races from three different luxurious locations. One of Singapore's top chefs will be on hand to prepare special meals during the races, and each viewing location will have private butler service. Time will also be afforded to explore the city complete with insider experiences. From $50,000, (646) 415-8092, www.remotelands.com.
